About The Author

Maggie Wheeler is best known in the U.S. and internationally for her work as an actress in film, television and voice-over and most notably as the character of Janice on NBC's hit series Friends. As a voice-over artist she has lent her voice to many animated characters from The Addams Family to Captain Underpants and beyond.

A long time lover of story telling, Maggie is thrilled to share Ebenezer Finds a Reason with children and their parents.

She says, "Children come into your life with particular needs and difficulties that are new to you and the desire to help can sometimes be confusing and imperfect. To me parenthood often feels like a mystical quest to help your children find the information they need to be well and whole in body, mind and spirit. Ebenezer's story is about just such a quest."

Maggie lives with her artist husband in Los Angeles where they raised their two daughters.

Alongside her work in film and television, Maggie is director of the Golden Bridge Community Choir in Los Angeles.
